President's invitation to go on a week-long tour of Cambodia and Vietnam.

Republicans John Tower of Texas and George Murphy of California and Democrat Howard Cannon of Nevada scheduled their departure today, along with four House members, three governors and two Nixon advisers.

Sen. Church Tuesday called the Dole proposal a travesty. The truth, he said, is "the longer our forces stay in Cambodia the more vulnerable they will be to capture—and to being killed by the enemy."

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., added that if fair and humane treatment is to be obtained for prisoners, "we must stop tying their rights to unrelated political controversies both foreign and domestic."

Church charged the Dole measure would arouse false expectations among families of prisoners and give them "hopes that simply cannot be fulfilled merely by passing a bill."

Dole, however, said repeatedly the "question is, does the President have the right to rescue Americans wherever they may be?"

This is a false issue, Church answered. "No one questions the President's right to rescue Americans when a quick, surprise rescue operation is feasible."

Dole and other administration backers in the Senate have charged the amendment would tie the President's hands and be a vote of no-confidence in his pledge to withdraw troops by June 30 anyway.

In the House, war critics sought to speed withdrawal from Indochina with a $6 billion cut in defense spending attached to legislation to increase government borrowing authority.

If they failed, they said, they would attempt to kill the $18-billion increase in the debt ceiling, which Congress must pass in some form by July 1 if the government is to pay its bills.

House members who were named to go on the Vietnam trip were Melvin Price, D-Ill., William G. Bray, R-Ind., O. C. Fisher, D-Tex., and G. William Whitehurst, R-Va.

First Lt. Michael P. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen of Emmet St. 1, is now stationed at Khorat, Thailand. He has been assigned Systems Control Officer to the Circuit Coordination Reporting Center of the 29th Signal Group which handles all communications in Thailand.

His wife, Jacque and son, Andy, are living in Hope while he is overseas.

Assures All Areas Served Properly

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Tuesday that the state auditor is responsible for determining whether the state Revenue Department is providing service as outlined in Act 100 and Act 116 of 1970.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Garner Taylor Jr. advised Auditor Jimmie "Red" Jones that the legislature's intent was to insure that all areas of the state were properly serviced by the department.

The acts provide that if the department fails or refuses to reopen and operate offices that were functioning on or before Jan. 1, 1969, the state auditor is to refuse to issue funds provided by the two acts.

Jones had stated previously that the acts required the department to operate a number of offices that were closed in 1969.

slight improvement. Six months ago, when the same 1,500 were polled, 762 responded. Of them only 344 saw no improvement or were dissatisfied, and 417 saw at least some improvement.

Labor's Goldfinger, after noting the sharpest rise in living costs in two decades, went on to say, "We have the sharpest increase in unemployment in 10 years. We have sky-high interest rates—higher than at any time in the past 100 years or more."

He spoke on the AFL-CIO-sponsored Labor News Conference program on the Mutual Broadcasting System.

He repeated the AFL-CIO's offer to support controls if Nixon finds them necessary and if they apply equally to prices, profits, dividends, rents and corporate salaries as well as wages.

Meanwhile 12 Democrats—all members of the House Banking Committee—introduced a bill that would give Nixon standby powers to impose such controls. Hearings were set for June 16.

The Banking Committee's senior Republican, Rep. William B. Widnall of New Jersey, already has called the bill a political ploy. The administration has opposed controls as unworkable.

Goldfinger urged Nixon to use the less drastic selective credit controls Congress authorized four months ago. He said they would pump more money into such slumping areas as construction and would restrict money for big-business speculation.

On the New York Stock Exchange Tuesday the Dow-Jones average of 30 industrials closed down three-quarters of a point after a four-day upsurge that had seen a gain of nearly 20 points.

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP) — State Police report that a pedestrian, Virt Gilbert, 56, of near Lexa was killed when struck by a car Tuesday night near here.

Police said Gilbert was struck by a car driven by Alvin Richard Hall, 20, of Marianna.

Group Formed to Promote Constitution

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Executive Committee of the bipartisan group formed to lead the campaign for adoption of the proposed new state constitution decided Tuesday to wait until after the political primaries this summer before beginning its campaign in earnest.

Robert Meriwether of Conway, who served as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention and who is executive director of the organization, said that the campaign should not get involved in any way with the political campaigns.

Meriwether, who met with the Executive Committee here, said he wanted to use young people as much as possible in the campaign, but that they should not be so identified with it that possible student demonstrations this fall on Arkansas campuses would harm the chances of the new document's passage.

During the meeting, the Executive Committee chose for the group's name "Arkansans for the Constitution of 1970." Meriwether was given authority to obtain telephones, furniture, equipment and a secretary. The group said it would explore the possibility of renting office space in the Capitol Hotel in Little Rock.

The Executive Committee also suggested that the organization obtain endorsements of the proposed new constitution from a variety of groups, including political parties in the state and from organized labor. Meriwether also suggested obtaining endorsements from all members of the Arkansas congressional delegation.

Charles D. Matthews, a committee member who is chairman of the state Democratic party, said he planned to call a meeting of the party's Executive Committee to discuss setting up organizations at the county level to support the proposed document, which will be voted on in the November general election.

Peace Youths Win Praise in Congress

By CARL C. CRAFT

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The legions of young people who came to Capitol Hill in the wake of the U.S. attack into Cambodia to lobby for peace have won praise from congressmen for their performance, but it will take roll calls on key antiwar measures to calculate their conquests, if any.

An Associated Press survey shows most senators and representatives on both sides of the Indochina issue credited the students at least for their conduct.

As for their goal of gaining powerful new allies, the most encouraging word for the students came from one of their most enthusiastic backers, Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif.

Cranston claims at least two senators, after visits by the youths, switched and now favor an amendment to restrict future U.S. involvement in Cambodia. He declined to name the senators.

However, most other senators agree the young lobbyists' impact can't really be determined until the votes are counted.

According to many of those who listened to the voices of hundreds—some estimate thousands—of young, it was a generally peaceful exercise in communication, although not all the congressmen liked what they heard.

"Some were on a lark," said Rep. Silvio O. Conte, R-Mass., a Nixon war policy critic and supporter of the youthful campaign, "but most of them were very serious kids with lots of dedication. They're clean-cut, good-looking youngsters."

However, Rep. John R. Rarick, D-La., who supports President Nixon on Vietnam, said he met with young people here and in his home state and found "no matter what you tell them, unless you agree completely with them, they are never satisfied."

"I think some of them hurt themselves by their demands," he added. "There has been some backlash but it is hard to estimate how much."

On the other hand, Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said: "I thought they were more effective than any similar action that we've ever had before."

"I tried to impress on them," he continued, "that taking part in politics is more important than demonstrating. I expect

Background on New GOP Candidate

By TOMMY YATES

Associated Press Writer
NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Who is Lester L. Gibbs?

That's the question being asked in political circles this week after Gibbs filed for governor on the Republican ticket Monday.

What is known about him so far is that he is 64 years old, a 1968 convert to the Republican party who said he voted for George Wallace for president, that he took part in the 1964 campaign of former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, that he resigned last Friday as a tax collector in the state Revenue Department, and that at one time he headed a band called Les Gibbs and the Arkansawyers.

Other than that Gibbs is mum on his background.

"My background—where I'm from, who I am and how I did it—will come out later," Gibbs said in an interview. "If I fire all my guns at once, then I haven't got anything to say later. I've got some guns to fire later and they'll be explosive."

Gibbs, who broke off a telephone interview by saying, "you're not leaving me anything for next week," said he would hold another news conference next week to begin firing those guns he talked about.

Before the interview was broken off, however, Gibbs did talk a little about his age and a few financial matters.

Asked if his age would hinder him, Gibbs said, "You know when a man gets 64, he does not know whether he is 64 or 34. On weekends I work, I keep myself built up physically."

Gibbs said he had no physical problems he knew about. He said he had a doctor's checkup Monday morning and he said the doctor told him there was nothing wrong "with me that a good elm club across the head wouldn't cure."

Unruh Takes California Election

WASHINGTON (AP) — George C. Wallace won Alabama's Democratic showdown Tuesday night, ousting Gov. Albert Brewer to recapture the State House—a political base vital to another third party presidential campaign in 1972.

Jess Unruh, once the "Big Daddy" of California's assembly, was a runaway leader in his race for the Democratic nomination to run against Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield vaulted to easy Democratic renomination in Montana.

Democratic Sens. Harrison A. Williams Jr. of New Jersey and Joseph M. Montoya of New Mexico both won renomination with no trouble.

In one surprise on a primary day which saw balloting in eight states, Anderson Carter, a conservative rancher and oilman, trounced New Mexico Gov. David F. Cargo and won the Republican nomination to run against Montoya.

Republican Sen. George Murphy of California, newly assigned to a White House fact-finding mission to Southeast Asia, was leading in his bid for renomination in California.

Early Democratic returns there also showed Rep. John V. Tunney leading Rep. George Brown Jr. for the Democratic Senate nomination. Both opposed U.S. policy in Indochina, Brown the more vehemently.

In New Jersey's 15th Congressional District, political laboratory for an antiwar campaign, Louis Kaden, a 28-year-old lawyer championed by volunteers from the college campus, lost his bid for Democratic nomination. He was trounced, 2 to 1, by Rep. Edward J. Patten.

In Alabama, Wallace reversed the outcome of an inconclusive May 5 primary in defeating Brewer, a protege turned rival. Brewer led the seven-man field in the first primary.

Scientists Are Cleared Politically

By G. C. THELEN Jr.

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has confirmed it requires what amounts to political clearance for scientists appointed to important government advisory committees.

Frederic V. Malek, deputy undersecretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, confirmed in part reports from career government officials and scientists that the administration has injected an unusual degree of partisanship into selections for policy advisory committees.

"It is important to the secretary and the management of the department to have certain appointees to these committees reflect his philosophies and represent his interests," Malek said. The committees covering areas from air pollution to alcoholism, heart disease and cancer—help shape the policy direction of critical scientific programs.

Appointments to strictly technical, nonpolicy advisory committees are apparently not subject to the political checks.

Career program managers complain of "low batting averages" in placing scientists they deem qualified on their advisory committees.

Recently, antipollution officials had all five of their nominees for the Air Quality Advisory Board rejected by the Nixon administration, sources said. Five different men were appointed, three of them employees of industry.

Some scientists, in turn, report they have been denied advisory posts by the Republican administration because they are Democrats.

Malek was asked recently by Rep. John S. Monagan, D-Conn., chairman of the House government operations subcommittee, whether scientist-nominees to the committees are screened to determine their sympathies "to what you are trying to do or accomplish in your administration."

"That is correct," Malek replied.

Knowledgeable HEW officials say such political screening was unusual in past administrations. "There was a certain cynicism of scientists on the committee trying to get their friends aboard but no screening for politics," said one official.

Dr. Roger O. Egeberg, assistant HEW secretary for health, confirmed the political checks in an interview.

Marijuana Find Brings Arrest

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) —

Malvern police said Tuesday that four persons were arrested during the day after marijuana and other narcotics were found in a car containing the four.

Officers said they stopped the car because it resembled one used Monday in the robbery of a branch bank office at Bryant. A search of the car located marijuana, officers said.

Late Tuesday, no charge had been filed.

Jim Johnson Lashes Some Newspapers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jim Johnson of Conway, head of an effort to recall Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said Tuesday that some news media had used "shabby tactics" to halt the recall.

Johnson criticized the Arkansas Gazette, the Arkansas Democrat and a Pine Bluff Commercial article circulated by The Associated Press.

These media, he said, had attempted to make it appear that the recall movement was unconstitutional.

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

MOUNTAIN OUT OF A MOLE HOLE

Dear Helen: Loved your column on "rabbit repellents." But my garden is plagued by gophers and moles. Maybe you or your readers can help here, too?—'HOLEsome'

Dear Holesome: Please, I field questions about rats, skunks, louses (not lice), tigers, cats, barracudas, birds, vixens, and various other human fauna but I gave up on burrowing varmints when I watched my three-foot-high marigolds disappear into the ground as if by magic—courtesy of our friendly neighborhood gophers.

My solution: If you can't drown 'em (you'll more likely flood your neighbor's yard), or poison, trap or gas-bomb them out (see your County Agent or nurseryman) then sink a swimming pool in your yard and surround it with cement. Your summers will be much more restful.—H.

Dear Helen: I support "Big Brother" who said minis were okay for stupid chicks but not for his sister or future wife. Shame on you, Helen, for putting him down! Skirts above the knee inflame men. They're dangerous!

When law enforcement officials were asked, "Does the short skirt invite sex crimes?" 92 percent of those answering the questionnaire said "Yes."

The incidence of forcible rape began climbing in 1964 the year skirts began to climb, and has been rising ever since.

Let's have a return to modesty.—Mr. A.P.

Dear Helen: I'm glad you stand for the modified mini on women who look well in them. We don't like extremes, but we hope skirts never go below the knee again, though we think every gal should decide for herself what looks best on her.

As for "inciting" men, isn't this a little silly when men are so used to seeing bikinis, shorts, and minis? Girls' legs aren't that unusual. My Grandfather told me how certain people predicted the ruination of women when the ladies showed two inches of ankle, way back when. But the novelty soon wore off, as it always does.

If it became fashionable to go around in the buff, stares would cease after the first few weeks.

A mini skirt gets far more attention than a mini these days, as the unusual attracts. "Big Brother" notwithstanding, males don't go wild and uncontrollable at the sight of a female leg! Normal ones don't anyway.—MARY

Dear Helen: This is an oldie, but appropriate for those "oldies" who insist on wearing minis: I think that I shall never see, a thing as ugly as a knee. Above whose garbled and knotted crest, a mini-hemline comes to rest.

Or, one that's even worse than that, when padded with repulsive fat.

A knee that may in summer wear, oh, naught at all, but be quite bare.

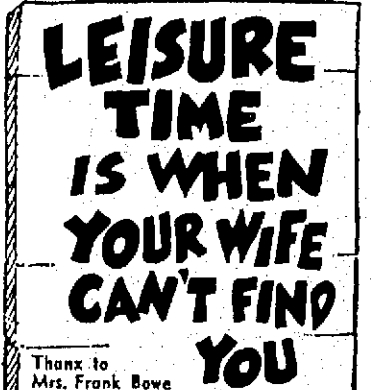

Behind whose flex there oft remains a net of blue and broken veins.

How they can form the letter X, some knees continue to perplex.

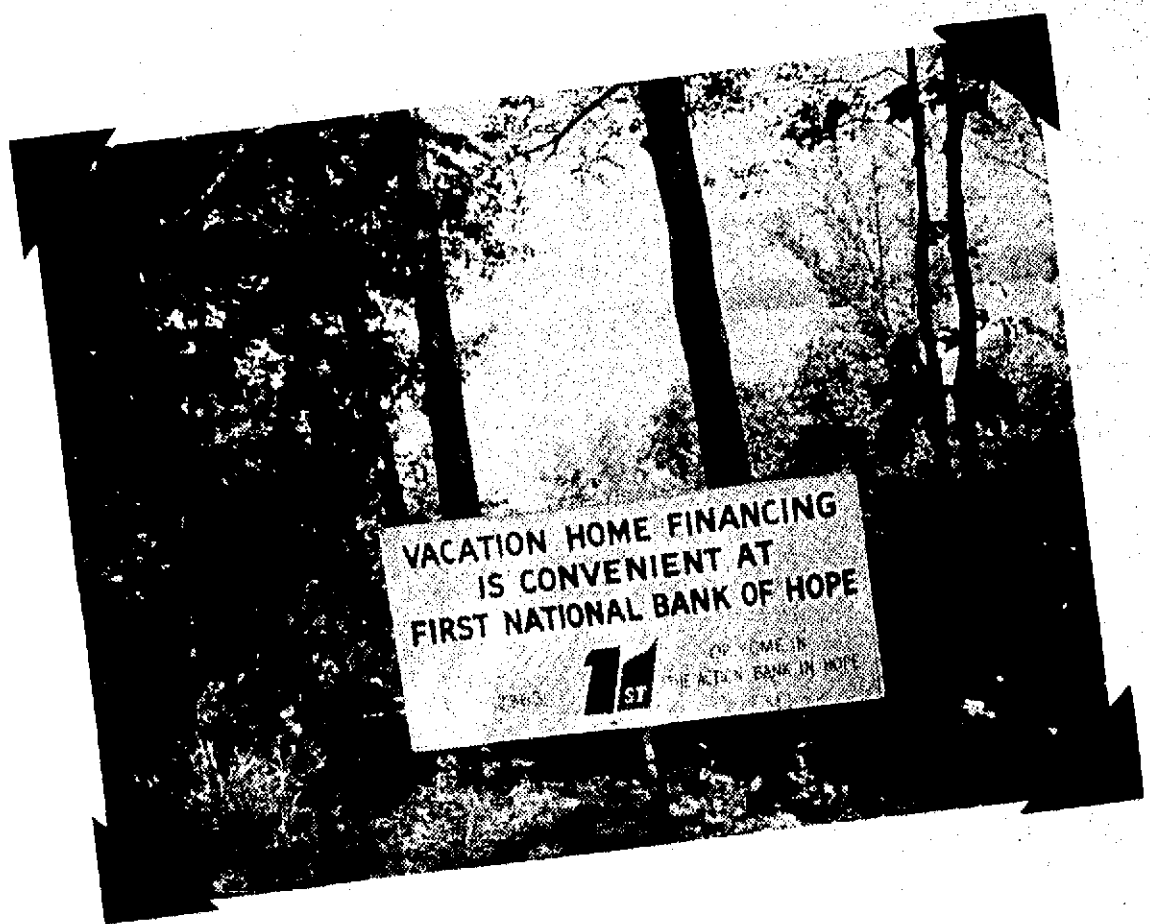

While in another set one sees a pair of true parentheses (). Small nuts write verses much like these, but greater nuts display their knees!

Casper Out, Hill May Not Start Kemper

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Billy Casper is out — and may be for some time — and Dave Hill is a questionable starter in the Kemper Open Golf Tournament.

Hill, the 1969 Vardon Trophy and winner of last week's Danny Thomas-Memphis Open, has committed to play in the $150,000 event that begins Thursday on the 7,231 yard, par 72 Quail Hollow Country Club course.

"But he committed with the understanding that he could be excused if he was unable to get out of some commitments in Michigan," tournament director Ed Carter said today. "We haven't heard anything further from him."

And Casper, the current Masters champion and one of the game's three one million dollar winners, withdrew because of a hand injury sustained on a recent trip to Japan.

"It's doubtful at this point whether I can play next week in the Western Open and the week after that in the U.S. Open," Casper told tournament officials by telephone from his home in Bonita, Calif. "It's that serious right now."

With Casper out, and Gary Player back home in South Africa, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus — as usual — ranked as the men to beat for the $30,000 top prize in the Kemper. Both are back in action after a week's rest.

Nicklaus, competing in the Kemper for the first time, played a practice round Tuesday and Palmer was scheduled to arrive today.

Some of the other top contenders in the 144-man field include Frank Beard and New Zealand Lefty Bob Charles, who finished just one stroke back of Hill last week, Lee Trevino, Dan Sikes, Gene Littler and defending champion Dale Douglass.

Among the 1970 tournament winners on hand are Pete Brown, Ron Cerrudo, Miller Barber, Mike Hill, Bob Lunn and Dick Lotz.

Also in the field are Australian Bruce Crampton, British Open champ Tony Jacklin, PGA title-holder Ray Floyd, Larry Hinson, Lee Elder and South African ghazal Henning.

Racing World Mourns Death of McLaren

GOODWOOD, England (AP) — The auto racing world today mourned the death of Bruce McLaren, one of its top drivers. He died Tuesday at 32 in the crash of an experimental car of his own design.

McLaren, a New Zealander, spun out of control in the auto while driving at 180 miles per hour on the Goodwood Circuit and crashed into an earthen bank.

His M8B sports car broke in two and exploded into flames. McLaren was dragged clear but died in minutes.

McLaren decided against personally competing at Indianapolis last month in order to ready the M8B for his defense of the prestigious Canadian-American Series races.

His death came on the same track which ended the career of Stirling Moss in 1961. Moss survived a high-speed collision at Goodwood but hasn't raced since.

Following news of his death, the Royal Automobile Club announced that McLaren was the winner of the coveted Seagrave Trophy for his outstanding performance in winning every race in the 1969 Can-Am Challenge Cup series with cars of his own design and construction.

McLaren had registered many triumphs in auto racing but his biggest victory was considered his winning of the LeMans 24 hours race in a Ford GT40 in 1968.

Niekro Turns in a Good Performance

By HERSCHEL NISSESON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Richie Allen, Hank Aaron, Tony Perez and Johnny Bench have set many a pitcher to biting his fingernails, but when Phil Niekro does it the hitters are in the palm of his hand.

The aforementioned sluggers all played long ball Tuesday night, while pitcher Niekro used a one-hour rain delay to give himself an oral manicure and get his knuckleball under control.

Allen crashed two home runs, one a grand slam, and drove in seven runs as St. Louis thrashed San Francisco 12-1.

Aaron backed Niekro's four-hit pitching with his first homer in two weeks as Atlanta downed the New York Mets 4-1. Bench drilled two homers and Perez one as Cincinnati thumped Philadelphia 7-2; the San Diego Padres blasted six Pittsburgh pitchers for 19 hits in a 14-8 slugfest and Houston tripped Montreal 6-4.

The other scheduled National League game, Los Angeles at Chicago, was rained out.

In the American League, Baltimore stopped Oakland 5-1, Boston whipped Minnesota by the same score, the New York Yankees edged Kansas City 3-2, Washington nipped the Chicago White Sox 4-3, Cleveland won a doubleheader from Milwaukee and 9-5 and California shaded Detroit 3-2 in 10 innings.

Manager Red Schoendienst returned Allen from the cleanup spot to No. 3 in the St. Louis batting order and the slugging first baseman, who hadn't homered in seven games, exploded.

He singled home a run in the first inning, belted a two-run homer in the fifth and capped the rout with his grand slam in the eighth. Backed by a 15-hit attack, Steve Carlton held the Giants to four hits—including Willie McCovey's 16th homer—and posted his first triumph since May 11.

The grand slam was the fifth of Allen's career and home run No. 18 for the season.

"The big reason for the change in the batting order," explained Schoendienst, "is getting Allen back up there to No. 3, where he can hurt people even more. I don't care if the score is 10-9 or 1-0, he's in a position now where he's going to be coming up when the game will either be won or lost."

The Mets and Braves, meeting for the first time since last year's NL playoffs, were locked in a 1-1 tie when the rains came in the third inning.

"I didn't like the weather," said Niekro. "The first couple of innings I struggled. The heavy air kept pushing the ball down. During the delay, I bit my fingernails down so I could get a better grip on the ball and I did a lot better."

When play resumed, the Braves went ahead in the fourth on Bob Didier's run-scoring single. Aaron, who hadn't homered since May 17, led it in the seventh with a two-run shot, his 17th.

"A home run always feels good," said Aaron, "whether you hit 10 in a week, once a week, once a month or once a year."

Tommie Agee homered for the Mets' run.

Bench slammed two homers, one a three-run wallop, and Perez, the majors' leading slugger, socked No. 19 as the Reds scored a rain-shortened triumph over the Phillies, their fifth straight win.

Rookie Wayne Simpson, 6-1, yielded six hits and fanned seven before rain halted play with the Phils batting in the top of the eighth.

San Diego got a two-run homer from Clarence Gaston, triples by Chris Cannizzaro, Tommy Dean and Jose Arcia (two) and doubles by Ollie Brown, Steve Huntz and Nate Colbert in routing the Pirates. Willie Stargell homered for Pittsburgh.

The Padres kayoed Bob Veale with a six-run first inning and never let up.

"I'd say our pitching wasn't too sound," ventured Pirate skipper Danny Murtaugh. "A couple of batboys even sneaked up there and got a couple of hits."

Southern, whose best time is .09.2.

Defending champion Prairie View anticipated strong competition from Southern Louisiana, last year's second place team, Eastern Michigan, third last year, Central Washington State College, Pittsburg State of Kansas and Emporia, Kan., State.

Athletes from 121 NAIA colleges are entered in the track and field competition.

Howard Hits Homer and Senators Win

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
Big Frank Howard, the Washington slugger who happens to lead the American League in home runs, claims that making contact is his biggest problem.

The same might be true of the entire American League when Sudden Sam, McDowell is on the mound.

Tuesday night neither of these veteran All-Star performers had any difficulty.

Howard drilled his 16th homer of the season, a two-run shot that earned the Senators a 2-2 tie, and his bloop single triggered a two-run eighth-inning rally that brought Washington a 4-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

McDowell, the AL's strikeout king, had a no-hitter for seven innings but had to settle for a two-hitter in the opener of a doubleheader when the Cleveland Indians swept Milwaukee 4-1, 8-5.

In other AL contests, Boston whipped Minnesota 5-1, New York edged Kansas City 3-2, Baltimore stopped Oakland 5-1 and California nipped Detroit 3-2 in 10 innings.

In the National League, Atlanta beat New York 4-1, St. Louis belted San Francisco 12-1, San Diego bombed Pittsburgh 14-8, Houston topped Montreal 6-4, Cincinnati downed Philadelphia 7-2 in a game called by rain in the eighth inning and Los Angeles at Chicago was called by rain.

Howard, who cracked 48 homers last year, says he doesn't think about the long ball.

"My biggest problem is making contact," said the huge 6-foot-7, 270-pound Howard. "If I make contact, the long ball will take care of itself."

His blooper in the eighth, however, was just as important as it moved Ed Stroud, who had opened the inning with a single — his fourth hit — to third, Mike Epstein then looped a single, scoring Stroud and Aurelio Rodriguez got the eventual winner across with a sacrifice fly as the White Sox got a run in the ninth, McDowell, who struck out eight Tuesday night, leads the league with 119 and upped his record to 8-3. His attempt at a no-hitter—McDowell owns seven no-hitters—was snapped when Danny Walton stroked a leadoff double in the eighth.

It was the stylish left-hander's seventh complete game — no other pitcher on the Indians' staff has one — and his second consecutive two-hitter. His earned run average dropped to 2.35.

"I'm not interested in a no-hitter," McDowell said afterward. "I'm more interested in winning. 'It was a stupid pitch,' he said of Walton's hit. 'I threw him a mediocre, semi-pro fast ball down the middle.'"

"Some guy in the stands kept telling me every inning I was working on a no-hitter. It didn't bother me. It became a joke and helped relax me."

Jack Heideaman's two-run single and a solo homer by Craig Nettles helped ease the way for McDowell in the opener and the Indians crashed five roundtrippers in the nightcap.

Nettles belted a pair and added Minnesota 5-1, 833, 3.43.

Strikeouts — McDowell, Cleveland 119; Lolich, Detroit 83.

ed a single for four runs batted in while Duke Sims also tapped out two and Ray Fosse drilled another. Walton had a solo homer for the Brewers.

Mike Andrews stroked four hits, driving in one run and igniting two rallies for the Red Sox while Billy Conigliaro rapped a solo homer to back the eight-hit hurling of right-hander Ray Culp over the Twins.

Curt Blefary drove in a pair of runs with a sacrifice fly and his first homer of the season as the Yankees headed off a ninth-inning Royal's surge.

Fritz Peterson picked up his eighth victory against two losses, but needed last-out help from Lindy McDaniel after Kansas City scored two runs in the final inning.

Jim Palmer notched his seventh victory, scattering five hits and Merv Rettenmund drove in two runs with a double. The A's contributed three errors to the Baltimore victory.

Jim Fregosi rapped a sacrifice fly in the 10th inning, enabling the Angels to get within 1½ games of West leader Minnesota. Fregosi's drive scored Jay Johnstone, who opened the inning with a triple. Willie Horton drove in both Detroit runs.

Travelers in Win Over Shreveport

LITTLE ROCK, (AP)—Steve Evans and Ron Willis combined for a four-hit shutout as Arkansas blanked Shreveport 3-0 in a Texas League game Tuesday night.

Evans had permitted three hits when he tired in the eighth inning and issued two consecutive walks.

Willis came on and stopped the Braves on one hit the rest of the way.

Jose Cruz and Wayne Dees slammed solo homers in the sixth inning to break a scoreless tie. Chip Coulter doubled in the Travelers' third run in the seventh inning.

Defense in Flood Case Takes Over

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The defense in the Curt Flood case was expected today to put on the stand Cincinnati owner Francis Dale, one of a steady stream of baseball officials testifying that the sport cannot exist without the controversial reserve system.

Mark Hughes, chief counsel for baseball's defendants, estimated it would be the end of the week or the first part of next week before the defense had exhausted its list of witnesses.

Also scheduled to testify today was John Gaherin, chief labor negotiator for the owners. In testimony Tuesday during the case in which Flood is challenging baseball's reserve system, the defendants called Bing Devine, general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals. Devine traded Flood to Philadelphia in the transaction that provoked the suit. Also called were NBC broadcaster Joe Garagiola and Joe Cronin, president of the American League.

Devine said it was his opinion that "trading contracts of players plays a comparable role to player development" in building a team. He revealed that the Cardinals had spent $1.75 million for player development and acquisition last year.

Devine also revealed, under cross-examination, that he had exercised the option renewal clause in the player's contract when slugger Richie Allen and pitcher Steve Carlton became holdouts with the Cards earlier in the spring.

Under the clause a player is automatically re-signed. One of the keys to Flood's suit is the contention that when a player is traded without his permission his rights are violated.

Flood also is contending that the option renewal clause enables the sport to operate in restraint of trade within the framework of the reserve system.

Garagiola, a former catcher with four National League clubs, testified the reserve system was reasonable and necessary and said, "To me it's the best system. Nobody has come up with anything different. If they change the name, everybody probably would be happy."

Cronin also testified that the sport needs the reserve system, said he didn't think players were in a weaker bargaining position than the clubs in salary negotiations and said, as far as he knew, players were "as satisfied as satisfied could be" with their salaries.

New Zealand Wins Race Four Games on Tap in World Hockey Play

MALMOE, Sweden (AP) — New Zealand won the first official two-man team Motorcycle World Speedway Championship Tuesday night when Ivan Mauger and Ronnie Moore recorded 1-2 finishes in five out of six heats. Some 8,000 spectators braved chilly weather at the local stadium.

Sweden automatically qualified for the final as host country and placed second ahead of England and Scotland.

History May Repeat in British Open

By TOM REEDY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEWCASTLE, Northern Ireland (AP) — It is beginning to look as though history is repeating itself in the British Amateur Golf Championship.

Defending champion Michael Bonallack of England and America's Bill Hyndman of Philadelphia, last year's runner-up, are rolling along and may meet again in the final. Bonallack won a year ago 3 and 2.

The 35-year-old Bonallack is after his fifth title. Hyndman, at 54, is trying to collect his first.

Peru trailed 2-0 but rallied for its triumph with Cubillas scoring the go-ahead goal.

Ohio State Best Team in 1960s

NEW YORK (AP) — Ohio State's 1968 national champions have been voted the outstanding college football team of the 1960s, according to a poll conducted by the American Broadcasting Co.

Writers and broadcasters from all sections of the country gave Ohio State 870 points to 658 for the 1969 Texas team, Boone Arledge, president of ABC Sports, announced.

Ohio State compiled a 10-0 record in 1968, including a victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Texas was 11-0 last season and beat Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl.

A committee chosen by ABC Sports to screen all the great teams of the 1960s narrowed its choices down to Ohio State, 1968; Texas, 1969; Alabama, 1961; Southern California, 1962; and Texas, 1963.

Alabama polled 619 points, Southern Cal 576 and the 1963 Texas team 432.

Similar polls have been taken for the best coach, best game and best players of the 1960s. The winners will be announced at a later date.

RAY JACKSON

SUBIACO, ARKANSAS (Special) — Ray Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Hope, was among the 60 seniors receiving their diplomas at the Commencement exercises of Subiaco Academy Thursday morning, May 28.

Raymond's diploma was presented to him by the Rev. Michael Lensing, O.S.B., President of Subiaco Academy where Ray has been a student the past four years.

Richey Very Determined to Turn Tables

PARIS (AP) — Fiery 5-foot-7 Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., is determined to turn the tables on Zeljko Franulovic of Yugoslavia when they meet in the semifinals of the French Open Tennis Championships on Thursday.

Franulovic won the U.S. National Clay Courts title last year. Enroute he whipped Richey in the quarter-finals 6-2, 6-2.

Their meeting in the French semis was set up Tuesday when Richey, seeded No. 8, upset the top-seeded Ilie Nastase of Romania 7-5, 9-7, 4-6, 6-3 and Franulovic, No. 5, tumbled Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., the third seed, 6-3, 3-6, 10-8, 4-6, 6-3.

Franulovic's victory spoiled Ashe's hope of completing the tennis Grand Slam. His defeat also left Richey as the only American remaining in the men's singles.

The women's quarter-finals take over the spotlight today. Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., meets Helga Niessen of Germany in one of the matches. In the others, Mrs. Margaret Court of Australia opposes Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, Julie Heldman of New York plays Mrs. Vlasta Vopickova, Czechoslovakia, and Virginia Wade, Britain, takes on Karen Krantzke, Australia.

Chargers Trade Star Tackle

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Ron Mix, perennial all-star offensive tackle in the 10-year history of the American Football League as a San Diego Charger, has been traded to the Oakland Raiders for two draft choices, the Chargers said early Wednesday.

A Charger spokesman said the Raiders will give San Diego undisclosed "but high" draft choices in 1971 and 1972 for the services of Mix, 31, who announced his retirement last Dec. 14.

He said consistency is the big factor in marathon training.

"Good intentions don't count for much in a race of this sort," he says.

Griffith to Take on Champ of Europe

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Emi Griffith, the former world middleweight boxing titleholder, battles Tom Bogs of Denmark, the division's reigning European champ, in a 12-round bout here Thursday night.

Nino Benvenuti of Italy, the reigning world champion, will watch from ringside. The bout is seen as the last chance Griffith, an American, has to secure another crack at the title he lost two years ago to Benvenuti in New York.

At 32, Griffith will pit all he learned in 13 tough years of boxing, including 20 middleweight or welterweight world title fights, against a Dane who is seven years his junior and not by far his equal in speed, technical brilliance and experience.

But Bogs, a former bricklayer and a handsome fellow packs so much strength and stamina in his tall body that in 55 fights no one has been able to floor him.

A leftjabber, he may be the "one-armed champ" that some hold him to be.

But the stinging left, and his enormous physical power, have been enough to keep him unbeaten, make him European champ and get him the position of No. 1 challenger for the world title in most ratings.

To the Dane, Thursday's fight — expected to attract some 10,000 fans to an open-air, suburban soccer stadium — is a calculated risk he runs in the hope that a victory will remove any doubt that he is the man Benvenuti must take on next.

Danish promoter-manager Mogens Palle, who has skillfully steered Bogs' career, openly admitted he may have made a fatal mistake in bringing Griffith here.

"I saw Griffith train with Tom Bethea in Yugoslavia before Bethea's recent attempt at Benvenuti's title in Yugoslavia," Palle said.

"Griffith is much better than I imagined. He has not slowed, he punches as hard as ever, and for the first time I'm really afraid that my man may get in serious trouble."

Longest Game Finally Ended

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Vern Hunter of Madisonville High School slid into Lexington Lafayette catcher Don Winsett Tuesday, knocking the baseball from his mitt and ending the longest game in the history of the Kentucky High School Baseball Tournament.

The score was Madisonville 12, Lafayette 11 in 22 innings. A total of 182 batters came to the plate, which the umpire swept 78 times. The previous longest tournament game was 17 innings between Shelby County and Owensboro in 1967.

Albuquerque to Honor Unser

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Today was Al Unser Day here in honor of the native son who won the Indianapolis 500 auto race Saturday.

Unser, his mother and brother Bobby, who won the Indy in 1968, were scheduled to arrive at the airport shortly before noon.

A parade through the city and a banquet tonight were planned.

Rosewall and Lavern in Singles Match

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Rod Laver and Ken Rosewall, who took time out for a couple of victories in New York Tuesday night, were to return to St. Louis today for the windup of the rain-delayed $30,000 Rawlings Tennis Classic.

Rosewall advanced to the semifinals with a 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 victory over Tom Okker of the Netherlands.

The winner of Friday night's clash between Rosewall and Roy Emerson will play Laver in the Tennis Champions Classic final for the $35,000 first prize July 18.

Meanwhile, Laver and Rosewall were to meet in the singles finals of the Rawlings Classic tonight. Emerson and Fred Stolle were scheduled to play a third-place match.

Because of player commitments elsewhere, the doubles competition of the Rawlings Classic, also delayed by rain, was cancelled. Instead of a championship match tonight, there will be a doubles exhibition featuring Rosewall and Stolle against Emerson and Laver.

Golf Earnings Boosted by Miss Englehorn

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Shirley Englehorn has boosted her golf earnings to $7,514, vaulting from 11th to seventh on the Ladies Professional Golf Association earnings list for 1970.

Miss Englehorn's $2,250 victory in last week's O'Sullivan Open at Winchester, Va., pushed her up the list, an association spokesman said Tuesday.

Continuing to lead the list is Carol Mann with $12,655, followed by Sandra Haynie with $11,016, Kathy Whitworth $10,027, Marilyn Smith $8,739, Betsy Rawls $8,700, JoAnn Prentice $7,934, Miss Englehorn $7,514, Mary Mills $7,372 and Donna Caponi $6,063.

Lawyer Says Defendant Was Victim

DEVALLS BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The kidnap trial of Daniel L. Graham, 31, a native of Brinkley, began here Tuesday with his attorney suggesting that the alleged victim was part of the kidnap plot. The victim denied the implication.

Graham is charged with abducting Margaret Clayton, 53, from her home near DeValis Bluff last Dec. 16 and releasing her near Alma after her husband, Herbert, paid $15,000 ransom.

Clayton is vice president of the Planters Bank and Trust Co. of Forrest City. He managed the DeValis Bluff branch of the bank at the time of the kidnaping.

Willis Plant of Clarendon, court-appointed lawyer for Graham, said the defendant had career with the Boston Patriots, has retired from pro football due to recurrent problems from a 1967 knee injury.

Eisenhauer, now 30, joined the Patriots in the second year of their existence in the former American Football League.

been asked by Mrs. Clayton prior to the kidnaping if he wanted to make "some easy money."

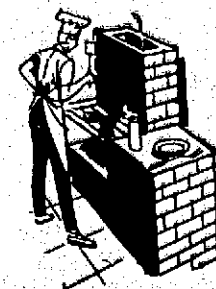

Graham went back to Mrs. Clayton's house later to pursue the suggestion and, Plant said, Mrs. Clayton got into the car and told Graham where to drive.

Mrs. Clayton later testified that she had no such role in the kidnaping. She also said that so far as she knew, the $15,000 paid to free her was money from her family.

News accounts at the time had stated that the bank had decided to underwrite the cost of the ransom.

But Robert Porter, president of the bank, said Clayton had volunteered to sign a note for the $15,000 that had been demanded as ransom.

The state seeks life imprisonment for Graham, who was arrested at his home near Springdale the night of Dec. 17.

Scientists Have Created a 'Gene'

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Scientists have created a gene in the laboratory, a feat that raises questions about the possibility of starting life itself in a test tube.

The announcement of the first man-made gene—the basic unit of heredity that controls all life processes—was made Tuesday by a team headed by a Nobel Prize winner, Dr. H. Gobind Khorana.

The University of Wisconsin team said genes can be made completely from simple organic chemicals.

Khorana, who won a 1968 Nobel for earlier work on the genetic code, said the new work might eventually allow scientists to manipulate the biology of a living system.

Some scientists have said in the past that it might be 25 to 100 years before this new knowledge of genetics can be put to work in man.

The first likely application would be in genetic engineering—perhaps infecting humans with viruses that carry new genes, genes that could cure hereditary diseases such as hemophilia.

By making and giving substitute genes, man may be able to make people smarter or taller. Scientists may be able to turn off the growth of cancer cells.

A first simple life form that might be made in the test tube is a virus.

Even this, however, could be dangerous. A man-made virus might be so unusual that nothing would exist to control it.

So while scientists are moving closer to control of biological processes, they also are moving closer to dangers and the problems of the possible misuse of this mastery.

Who would be given the power to make decisions about heredity control? This question is one of profound concern to many scientists working with genetics.

Wells Not a Worry to Him, Governor Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Tuesday that he was undisturbed by the entry of Lester L. Gibbs, 64, of North Little Rock into the race for the Republican party gubernatorial nomination.

Gibbs, politically unknown, resigned last Friday from his job in the state Revenue Department and filed Monday and Tuesday for the governor's race.

"I've always been in favor of activity in the Republican primary," Rockefeller said. He added that he knew nothing about Gibbs.

The governor is to hold a news conference next Tuesday to announce whether he will seek a third term as the state's first GOP chief executive since Reconstruction.

River Bridge Will Cost $8 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bids will be opened June 24 by the state Highway Commission on 11 road construction projects, including renovation of the Broadway Bridge across the Arkansas River at Little Rock.

The bridge contract also calls for construction of a new span across the stream. Last month, the commission estimated that the project would cost about $8 million.

Total value of the other 10 construction projects was estimated at about $2.9 million.

Officials said construction of a new, four-lane Main Street Bridge would take about two years and renovation of the Broadway Bridge would take about 10 months.

Other jobs, by county: MONROE and LEE — Concrete paving and other improvements for 14.99 miles of Arkansas 79 from 2.5 miles west of Clarendon eastward.

MILLER — Grading and other improvements on 2.8 miles of Arkansas 134 from near the junction with Arkansas 196 west of Garland City.

PIKE — Erection of a bridge and grading of 3.2 miles of Arkansas 301 from Billstown northwesterly.

WHITE — Surfacing of 11.5 miles of U.S. 67 from 0.3 miles south of the junction with U.S. 64 in Bald Knob northeasterly.

INDEPENDENCE — Surfacing of 10.8 miles of Arkansas 25 from the junction with Arkansas 92 in Drasco northeasterly. DALLAS and CLEVELAND — Surfacing of 12.87 miles of Arkansas 167 from near Irvan northerly.

VAN BUREN — Grading and other improvements of 4.238 miles of Arkansas 92 from the Conway County line northeasterly.

SEARCY — Grading and other improvements of 6.456 miles of Arkansas 27 north of Imo northerly.

POINSETT — Surfacing of 11.26 miles of Arkansas 140 from junction of U.S. 63 south-east of Tyrone northerly.

CROSS and POINSETT — Grading and other improvements of Arkansas 163 from Bay Village northerly.

Candidates Continue to File

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., filed by mail Tuesday as a Democratic candidate for re-election. He has served since 1967.

Pryor was the second of Arkansas' four members of the U.S. House to file, although all four had announced earlier that they would seek new terms.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., also has filed.

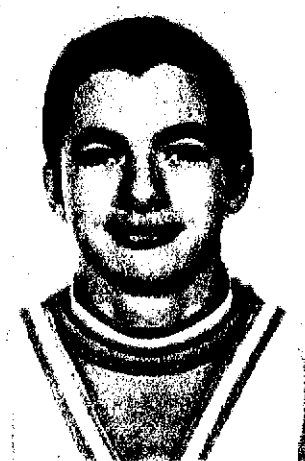

Yet to file are Rep. Bill Alexander, D-Ark., and Rep. John P. Hammerschmidt, R-Ark.

In other filings Tuesday: Gary Coe, 28, of Little Rock, program director of radio station KLRA, filed as a Republican candidate for the Arkansas House in Position 8, District 22, which includes Pulaski and Perry counties. Coe seeks the position of Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill of Little Rock, a Democratic party and who says he intends to run for either governor or lieutenant governor.

Three Democratic state representatives filed for re-election. They include Grady Arrington, 46, of Stephens, Leroy Blankenship, 31, of Walnut Ridge and Lamar Dingler, 48, of Lake Village.

Arrington represents Position 2 in District 40, which is Ouachita County Blankenship represents District 10, which is Lawrence County, and Dingler represents District 48.

12 spicy reasons you'll like our clean stations.

Free.

Where you see the "Free Spice" sign: One spice free with each gasoline fill-up. 8-gallon minimum. There are a dozen exotic spices from all parts of the world.

Collect all 12, and the handsome maple-finish spice rack, too, which is yours anytime for only $1.69 with another gasoline fill-up. 8-gallon minimum. And you can charge it on your Esso Credit Card.

Start your spice set today at participating Esso stations.

Esso retailers have gone clean crazy! We cleaned up, swept up, scrubbed, shined and polished everything in sight. Because we know you like a clean place to do business. And we know something else. You won't believe we're all shiny clean just because we say so.

So many of us have a free gift for you just to get you to come in and see for yourself. And to make sure you'll be able to see for yourself, we'll clean your windshield and rear window without being asked.

But although participating Esso retailers are trying to have the cleanest stations in town, we might goof once in a while. So if we fail to deliver on any part of our new Clean Crazy Pledge, you get something else: A Goof Gift. Don't count on that Goof Gift, because we'll do our damndest not to have to give it away.

And to prove there's no cleaner, pleasanter place to do business than the place where you see the Esso sign.

Our Clean crazy Pledge

- Clean Windshield and Rear Window
- Clean Restrooms with Soap, Towels, Tissue available
- A Cleaner Station We'll do our best to keep it bright

Goof Gift. We have a gift for you, if we fail on any part of our Clean Crazy Pledge. One gallon of gasoline free.

JUNE 100 PER CENT CHURCH ATTENDANCE MONTH AT BETHEL

The administration of Bethel A.M.E. Church at 419 South Laurel Street announces a period of church attendance emphasis.

The month of June is designated as the honor roll month for the Bethel church family.

Each member of the church is requested to attend worship services for the 10:50 a.m. and the 7:30 p.m. worship sessions each Sunday in June. The only legitimate excuse is death in the immediate family. Certificates of attendance will be awarded eligible persons in a special recognition service in July. Special persons who are asked to encourage attendance include: Mr. Sylvester Davis, Sr., Mr. R.A. Hicks, Sr., Miss Carolyn Williams, Mrs. Theima Bishop, Mrs. W.C. Lowe, and Mr. C.W. Hicks.

The pastor, Dr. W.G. Wynn, says that "the greatest problem in motivating proper church worship is to initiate church attendance responsibility consciousness." The public is invited to all services.

The children's choir of Bethel A.M.E. Church will meet for rehearsal at 5:00 p.m. Thursday.

The senior choir will meet for rehearsal at 7:30 p.m.

All members of each choir are urged to be present.

COMING AND GOING

You can't blow hot and cold at the same time. If you use a negative double and want to double for business you must pass and hope for the best. Sometimes this works out well. You get a chance to double one trick higher. On other occasions the bid will get back to your partner. At this point he should make an effort to double for you. Of course, his double will be a normal take-out double but you will convert it to a business double by passing.

South's one spade overall was a trifle unsound. He might not have made it if he hadn't known that West could only double him for take-out.

North had no bid and now East did double. He had too good a hand to sell out at one spade and was quite happy when West passed.

North and South weren't at all happy at the prospect of playing one spade doubled but they had no place to go and had to suffer.

The defense started out with a rush. East won the diamond lead, cashed his second high diamond and gave his partner a ruff. West led the queen of hearts. Dummy's king lost to West's ace. East cashed the 10 of hearts and led his deuce of spades to his partner's eight. West took his pack of hearts for the seventh defensive trick and led a club. South won with the ace and led a club back.

East won and proceeded to

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that a special election will be held in the City of Hope, Arkansas ("City") on the 23rd day of June, 1970, at which there will be submitted to the electors of the City the question of Issuing City of Hope, Arkansas Industrial Development Revenue Bonds ("bonds") under Act No. 9 of the First Extraordinary Session of the Sixty-Second General Assembly of the State of Arkansas, approved January 21, 1960, as amended ("Act No. 9"), in the aggregate principal amount of not to exceed $250,000 for the purpose of furnishing the permanent financing of the cost of securing and developing industry. The bonds will be dated, will bear interest at such rate or rates, interest will be payable on such dates, the bonds will mature on such date or dates, the bonds will be subject to redemption prior to maturity in such manner and upon such terms, and the bonds will be issued at one time or in series from time to time, all as the Board of Directors of the City of Hope, Arkansas, shall subsequently determine and specify in the ordinance authorizing their issuance. The proposed Industrial Project will consist of an expansion of the industrial plant operated by Meyer's Bakery of Little Rock, Inc., an Arkansas corporation (called "Meyer") embodying lands, buildings, improvements and facilities (the "Project") and the proceeds of the bonds will be used for the financing of the Project costs, expenses and expenditures in connection therewith and the expenses of the financing. The Project will be leased to Meyer for lease rentals sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds as the same become due. All obligations of Meyer will be unconditionally guaranteed by Meyer's Bakeries, Inc. The bonds will not be general obligations of the City but will be special obligations payable solely from revenues derived from the Project including particularly lease rentals under the Lease Agreement with Meyer, which will be specifically pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and the bonds will be secured by a lien on and security interest in the Project as authorized by and in accordance with Act No. 9.

Only qualified electors of the City of Hope, Arkansas, will have the right to vote and the electors may vote either for or against the issuance of the bonds.

The election will be held between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., at the following polling places in the City of Hope, Arkansas, to wit:
Box 1-A, Box 1-B, Box 1-C, and Box 1-D, all at Hope Fire Station,
Box 2-A, and Box 2-B all at Courthouse in Little Courtroom. Ward 3 will vote at City Hall. Box 4-A and 4-B at Hope Youth Center Building.

This 18th day of May, 1970,

Computer Goes to Work Setting Type for Star

The first of our two computerized phototypesetting machines began setting type this morning for today's Star. As with all "switch-over" operations today's edition and probably the balance of this week's papers will be a mixture of new type from the Compugraphics and old typewriter production from our Just-O-Writers, soon to be retired.

Both the new and old types are 9-point, but the style won't be quite identical. In general, the reader can spot the different types by noting whether the news story is from the AP telegraph or a local item. Wire stories today are handled by the computer, local stories (including this editorial column) are composed on the old Just-O-Writers.

The Compugraphic computer production can be pinpointed on two items, the weather table and the baseball standings, columnar matter which should be lined up perfectly—a job the Just-O-Writers didn't do so well.

Also, computerized typesetting gives us boldface by-lines and sub-titles, where formerly we had to use lightface caps.

The first Compugraphic machine was set up and tested Tuesday by the Compugraphic Corporation's installer, Joseph A. Savio, late of Boston, Mass., now stationed at Little Rock by the company's Atlanta (Ga.) regional office. Young Mr. and Mrs. Savio, it developed at luncheon Tuesday, have 11 children, two of whom made the service trip to Hope with their father. The Savios have bought a house and an acre of ground on the Conway road out of Little Rock—and are enthusiastic about Arkansas.

The second Compugraphic machine is due any day, and upon its installation we will show photographs of the new composing room.

In the last five years this is what has happened on The Star, and hundreds of newspapers like it:

At the end of 1965 we switched from letterpress to the offset system of printing, the key pieces of equipment being our five-unit, 20-page rotary press.

In 1966 we discarded the old Linotype shop and installed Just-O-Writers producing type-writer script.

In 1970 we discarded the Just-O-Writers and installed the ultimate—computerized phototypesetters, which hadn't been invented in 1966... so fast does the world move today.

Little Rock Designated a Port of Entry

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Tuesday that the U.S. Customs Bureau has designated Little Rock as a port of entry.

Ray Huff of New Orleans, commissioner of the Customs Bureau region that includes Arkansas, said an office staffed by two men would be opened in Little Rock next month.

Rockefeller and Huff made the announcement before a seminar sponsored by the state Chamber of Commerce, Arkansas Waterways Commission and Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

Designation as a port of entry means that cargo shipped by ocean-going vessels may be transported up the Mississippi River to Little Rock without inspection at New Orleans. The inspection would be made by Customs agents in Little Rock.

Earthquake in Peru is Devastating

By ISAAC A. LEVI
Associated Press Writer
LIMA, Peru (AP) — Bad weather and blocked roads continued to hamper efforts today to go rescue workers into the earthquake-shattered Huaylas Canyon high in the Peruvian Andes.

The towns of Yungay, Caraz and Huaraz in the canyon were almost totally destroyed in the earthquake which rumbled through half of Peru Sunday. Government officials feared as many as 30,000 people were killed, but broken communications still prevented anything like an accurate tally of casualties.

In Yungay, about 240 miles north of Lima, only 2,500 residents reportedly survived out of the population of 20,000, a high government official said.

Information Director Augusto Zimmerman said many people who ran into the narrow streets of the Andean villages and towns were killed by falling rocks and debris from the canyon walls. A surging tide of water from Lake Llanganuco added to the destruction.

The air force managed to drop a squad of 34 rescue workers Tuesday at Huaraz, at the south entrance of the gorge. It followed up with several more supply drops deeper in the canyon and made a few helicopter evacuations before the weather closed in.

President Juan Velasco paid a quick visit by navy ship to Chimbote, about 250 miles up the coast from Lima, and said he was shocked by what he saw in the fishing and factory city of 80,000. The president declared an eight-day mourning period and his military regime ordered the national budget readjusted to provide $16 million to begin reconstruction.

Forty per cent of Chimbote was reported destroyed or damaged, and some 300 people were killed there, according to the latest official account.

Despite the mourning for the known dead and the fears for those in areas not heard from, thousands poured into the streets of Lima early Tuesday night cheering Peru's 3-2 soccer victory over Bulgaria in the World Cup competition in Mexico.

Killed by Hit and Run Driver

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Police say John Koster, 59, of Jonesboro was killed Tuesday night by a hit and run driver.

Koster was struck from behind as he walked along the east edge of Arkansas 141 about a tenth of a mile north of the Jonesboro city limits.

Police said three witnesses described a blue automobile as pausing after Koster was hit, and then driving away. Headlight glass and other clues were discovered at the scene of Koster's death, officers said.

Thinks Everyone Should Plant a Tree and Keep an Eye on Its Growth

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Everyone should plant a tree when young and periodically revisit and check its growth as long as he lives. There are few better ways to get a feeling of the continuity of life, to lie in its shade after it matures gives one a mystic, almost godlike feeling of victory over fate.

The patient doctors hate most to deal with is the one who says, "The only symptom I've got, doc, is that I keep seeing spots before my eyes." Such cases are among the hardest to diagnose.

Whatever happened to the fine old game of leapfrog? You hardly ever see children play it anymore although, of course, it is still quite popular at the executive level.

Mitchell Asks Judge for More Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell asked a federal judge to keep under wraps for at least two more weeks a sealed presentment by a Baltimore grand jury that has accused the attorney general of blocking an indictment.

In a motion filed with U.S. District Judge Roszel C. Thomsen of Baltimore, the Justice Department also asked that a scheduled meeting of the grand jury June 10 be postponed.

The presentment, given to Judge Thomsen by the grand jury last Thursday, reportedly contains an indictment resulting from the grand jury investigation of high public officials.

The motion, signed by George Beall, the new U.S. Attorney for Baltimore, but prepared by Mitchell's office, said the Justice Department needed more time to study the case and argued against making the presentment public prior to a decision on whether the case should be prosecuted.

The motion asks that Thomsen postpone a decision on making the presentment public until June 17.

Acknowledging last Thursday that he had stepped in, Mitchell said the case was being reviewed by the department's criminal division.

The Washington Post has reported the inquiry involves a contract for underground parking garages for the House of Representatives.

Progress Report on War to Be Given by President in TV Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today rejected a proposal to give the President a free hand in Cambodia so long as Communists hold Americans prisoner there.

The vote was 54 to 36. The setback for the administration came only hours before President Nixon was scheduled to go before a national television-radio audience with what is expected to be an optimistic progress report on the campaign in Cambodia.

The Senate test was on an administration-backed proposal by Kansas Republican Robert J. Dole designed to negate the Cooper-Church amendment that would bar funds for U.S. operations in Cambodia after June 30.

Although defeat of the Dole proposal, which called for allowing the President to use U.S. forces in Cambodia as long as American troops were held prisoner there, had been expected, the action reportedly would not affect Nixon's remarks, scheduled for 9 p.m. EDT.

The President set his speech after meeting with defense and military leaders over the weekend when he reportedly was given optimistic accounts of the month-old Cambodian campaign.

The President's Indochina policy also was under attack in the House today where antiwar members argued for a rider to a bill raising the national debt limit that they said was aimed at forcing a faster withdrawal of U.S. troops from Southeast Asia.

The vote on the Dole proposal was the first real indication of Senate feeling concerning the measure sponsored by Sens. Frank Church, D-Idaho, and John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., to curb Nixon's powers in Cambodia after June 30, the date the President set for withdrawing all American forces from that country.

Chances for a quick vote on the Cooper-Church amendment itself remained dim since three senators Tuesday accepted the

Businessmen Declare Anti-inflation Moves by Nixon Have Failed

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Three of four businessmen in a new poll say the government's anti-inflation efforts have flopped, echoing the persistent sentiment of organized labor and a group of congressional Democrats.

Of the 712 businessmen answering a poll by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce magazine National Business, 540 said President Nixon's efforts were going badly or there was no improvement in inflation.

"We have the worst inflation in 20 years," AFL-CIO economist Nathan Goldfinger said Tuesday. "I would not rule out a depression, but the current situation certainly is one of economic recession, and the economic recession is getting worse."

In other developments Tuesday the stock market's four-day rally stalled after a gain of nearly 80 points, and House Democrats introduced a bill to give the President power to impose the wage-price controls he opposes.

The Nation's Business survey will be published in the magazine's July edition. Every three months the magazine polls one of two alternating groups of 1,500 businessmen. About half respond each time.

This time 712 responded, with 540 seeing no improvement or worse and 172 seeing at least

Kiwanians to Welcome Dist. Governor

Local Kiwanians are looking forward to the visit of Mo-Ark District Governor Dick DeWalle and his wife as they make their official visit to the clubs of Division 24 on Friday night of this week.

There will be a reception for the visitors at Tarpley's Motel from six to seven p.m., followed immediately by a dinner meeting at Town and Country Restaurant. At this Ladies Night affair Kiwanians and their wives from Arkadelphia, Camden, El Dorado, Foreman, Hot Springs, Magnolia, Malvern, Prescott, Strong and the host club will be in attendance, honoring Governor DeWalle of St. Louis, Missouri who has a total of 24 Divisions composed of 108 Missouri and Arkansas Clubs under his jurisdiction.

Lt. Governor of Division 24, Kiwanian F.C. Crow of Hope, has charge of arrangements assisted by officers of the local club and by District Treasurer, Dean Murphy.

The Kiwanis Club of Hope has been signally honored by being chosen as the host club for this Kiwanis Division meeting. This is the first time in more than twenty five years that the local club has been so honored.

Health Dept. Unrest Brings Quick Results

By G. C. THELEN JR.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) —

Long-simmering unrest within the federal health establishment has burst to the surface with the fiery resignation of the government's chief psychiatrist and his public firing two hours later by the Nixon administration.

The forced departure Tuesday of Dr. Stanley F. Yolles, a career government physician and director of the National Institute of Mental Health, capped months of barely concealed fighting among federal medical officials.

The main issues have been alleged political intervention in scientific matters, scanty budgets, and faltering leadership from President Nixon's men.

Yolles' letter of resignation and hot denunciation came less than an hour after Dr. Roger O. Egeberg, the administration's chief physician, assured newsmen he was successfully treating bureaucratic health problems.

It provided further political embarrassment for embattled Health Secretary Robert H. Finch, who just spent two weeks recovering from fatigue attributed in part to the stresses of running the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Finch's leadership has been questioned by his own employees and reportedly by the White House.

Yolles, in his letter of resignation, accused the administration of "abandonment of the mental ill" and alleged unnecessary budget cuts, and program decentralization to political hands in HEW regional offices. He further complained of research curbs, abnegation of responsibility for drug-abuse control, and "partisan political considerations" in selecting government scientific officials.

Finch condemned the "intemperate" tone of Yolles' letter and declined the psychiatrist's offer of a July 1 resignation. Instead, Yolles was fired on the spot.

Yolles had agreed Monday to resign after Finch aides told him he was no longer wanted.

"But we had to sack him on the spot after seeing that letter," said Frederic V. Malek, HEW deputy undersecretary.

George C. Wallace has won his bid to recapture Alabama's governorship—the likely prelude to another presidential race in 1972—and Jess Unruh claimed the Democratic nomination against Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

Wallace, who overcame a narrow first primary loss, promptly celebrated his victory in Tuesday's Democratic runoff over incumbent Albert P. Brewer by demanding President Nixon "Give us back our schools."

Nearly complete returns gave Wallace 542,154, Brewer 510,442.

In California, Unruh, a slimmed-down version of the man known as "Big Daddy" while speaker of the state's Assembly in the mid-1960s, easily outdistanced Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles. Reagan was unopposed for Republican renomination.

That state's battle of two antiwar Democrats saw Rep. John V. Tunney, son of former heavyweight boxing champion Gene Tunney, ahead of Rep. George E. Brown Jr., who once threatened to launch impeachment proceedings against President Nixon because of the U.S. attack into Cambodia.

The winner faces incumbent Sen. George Murphy, the one-time actor and dancer, who defeated millionaire industrialist Norton Simon in the GOP primary. Murphy is a strong supporter of President Nixon's policies in Southeast Asia.

With 24 per cent of the state's 21,501 precincts counted, Unruh had 394,055 and Yorty 153,054.

Senatorial totals stood: Tunney 253,979, Brown 206,798; Murphy 304,463, Simon 157,098.

The year's busiest political day so far, with balloting in eight states, saw the renomination of four Democratic senators—Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, John C. Stennis of Mississippi, Harrison A. Williams Jr. of New Jersey and Joseph M. Montoya of New Mexico.

Besides Reagan, two other Republican governors were renominated—Robert D. Ray of Iowa, who was unopposed, and Frank Farrar of South Dakota.

In the day's only major upset, Gov. David Cargo of New Mexico was defeated for the Republican senatorial nomination by Anderson Carter, a conservative rancher and oil man, who now faces Montoya, victorious over former state Rep. Richard Edwards.

George C. Wallace has won his bid to recapture Alabama's governorship, a presumed stepping stone to a presidential try in 1972. In other elections on the busiest day of primaries this year, Jess Unruh has claimed the Democratic nomination for California governor and the right to meet incumbent Ronald Reagan, Rep. John V. Tunney has the lead to the Democratic nod to meet Sen. George Murphy, and Gov. David Cargo of New Mexico was upset in a bid for the right to meet Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, a Democrat.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon goes on national television tonight to present an Indochina progress report. Although a measure backed by the administration was expected to be defeated in the Senate just hours before the talk, the action reportedly would not affect his remarks. The measure would negate a proposal cutting off funds for U.S. operations in Cambodia after June 30.

SAIGON (AP) — Five hundred South Vietnamese troops have made a helicopter assault to link up with defenders of a mountaintop artillery base battered by two days of attacks.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has agreed to resume talks with the United States in an effort to find a political solution to the increasing war-like Middle East situation. However, the U.S.S.R. has refused to disclose its purpose in supplying pilots and missiles in increasing numbers to Egypt.

LIMA (AP) — Bad weather and blocked roads continue to hamper rescue efforts in areas shaken by a massive earthquake Sunday in Peru. As many as 30,000 persons are feared dead.

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Scientists have created a gene in the laboratory, a feat that raises questions about the possibility of staring life itself in a test tube.

At the special Memorial Day service held Sunday, May 31 at the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church, the Rev. Jerry Brown was the guest speaker. Harry Hawthorne and Mrs. Olin Purcell, representing Leslie Huddleston Post 12 and Auxiliary Unit, greeted the guest servicemen and their families were in attendance.

At Boys State Calvin Willis of Hope was named tax collector of Harrison County. Jerry Pruden was named Justice of the Peace of Bohlinger County and Joe Fouse was named surveyor of Summers County.

The assault, described by U.S. officers as a "superbly executed sapper attack," drove beyond the base's barbed wire and outer bunker line to its tactical operations center, where one American was among the defenders killed.

Other officers said unwounded South Vietnamese troops had tried to get aboard medical evacuation helicopters Tuesday night to flee the base.

The U.S. Command announced the death of nine Americans in a helicopter crash Sunday near Loc Ninh, 78 miles north of Saigon, and said the cause of the crash was not known. It was the 3,766th helicopter reported lost in the war.

The Cambodian army launched a large-scale sweep through an area 35 miles south of Phnom Penh where eight foreign television newsmen have been missing since Sunday, and three of the men were reported prisoners of the Viet Cong.

Moonshine Still Is Destroyed

A large liquor still was destroyed in Hempstead County yesterday by local and Nevada County officers.

The still was found northeast of DeAnn by Deputy Sheriff Fred McCullay, Nevada County Sheriff Arthur Lee Wuker and his deputies, J.H. Dillard, Clyde Covington and a U.S. ABC officer. It was a 300 gallon copper still and 108 gallons of moonshine was found but nobody was around. Destroyed were 12 barrels of mash.

Troops Carried by Copters Hit Enemy

SAIGON (AP) — Five hundred South Vietnamese troops made a helicopter assault today to link up with the weary defenders of a mountain ridge artillery base battered by two days of attacks in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

Following up an early morning hammering by U.S. B52 bombers, American and South Vietnamese fighter-bombers dropped antipersonnel cluster bombs on lower ridges within half a mile of beleaguered Firebase Tun Tavern, while the relief force flew into a landing zone about the same distance from the base on the opposite side.

Field reports said there was no resistance as the reinforcements and their U.S. advisers joined the remnants of Tun Tavern's defenders to begin a sweep around the base.

At noon, North Vietnamese mortar crews were still hurling shells into the helicopter pad of the kidney-shaped outpost four miles east of the Laotian border as American medical helicopters wheeled in to take out the dead and wounded.

One helicopter was hit and destroyed this morning.

Losses continued to rise on both sides in the battle for the base, which occupies a narrow ridge 1,600 feet above the Da Krong River valley.

Field reports put government casualties at 50 killed and 119 wounded. The allies say 81 North Vietnamese have been killed.

One American adviser was killed and several U.S. and Australian advisers were wounded in the fighting Tuesday at Tun Tavern, which lies in rugged jungle mountains 21 miles south of the demilitarized zone.

Spokesmen at Quang Tri City said two prisoners captured early today reported gunships which circled the beleaguered base all night firing rockets and miniguns had ruined plans for another full-scale ground assault.

Tun Tavern, a former U.S. Marine artillery base, was occupied by an estimated 500 South Vietnamese infantrymen, artillerymen and engineers when the enemy launched a fierce assault up its slopes before dawn Tuesday.

The assault, described by U.S. officers as a "superbly executed sapper attack," drove beyond the base's barbed wire and outer bunker line to its tactical operations center, where one American was among the defenders killed.

Other officers said unwounded South Vietnamese troops had tried to get aboard medical evacuation helicopters Tuesday night to flee the base.

No Indication Russia Plans Any 'First'

By HOLGER JENSEN
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — The first manned Soviet space flight in eight months put two cosmonauts in orbit Monday night, but there was no indication any "first" were planned. The launch at 10:00 p.m. Moscow time—3:03 p.m. EDT—was hailed by the Soviet radio and television as "another glorious step in space exploration." The mission was "an extensive program of scientific and technical research," the Soviet news agency Tass said.

Tass said the Soyuz 9 crewmen, in their first seven hours aloft, "adapted themselves well to the conditions of weightlessness and are carrying out the flight program." But the program was not spelled out in any detail.

The Soviet news agency said the two cosmonauts began an eight-hour rest period at 6 a.m. Moscow time—11 p.m. EDT Monday—after completing their fifth orbit. The report said the orbit ranged between 129 and 137 miles above the earth. Soyuz 9 is commanded by veteran Soviet cosmonaut Col. Andrian Nikolayev, 40, who participated in the world's first group space flight in 1962 as the pilot of Vostok 3. He is married to the Soviet Union's only woman cosmonaut, Valentina Nikolayeva-Tereshkova. They have a 6-year-old daughter.

Nikolayev has not made any space flights for the past eight years, but has been training other cosmonauts. With him in Soyuz 9 is 34-year-old Vitaly Sevastianov, former aircraft designer making his first space flight.

There was speculation that the space shot was intended as a prestige booster, timed to coincide with a space conference being held in Leningrad and the visit of American astronaut Neil A. Armstrong, who has been attending the conference.

The Soviet Union, after it's initial lead in the space race, has been outpaced by the United States for the past five years. The last major Soviet space triumph was Alexei Leonov's pioneering space walk in 1965.

The first presidential press conference was held by President Woodrow Wilson in March, 1913, 11 days after his inauguration.

3 Arkansans Killed in War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department identified three Arkansans Monday as among the latest victims in the war in Southeast Asia. All were serving in the Army.

Sgt. Garvin W. Dill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Dill of Manila, and Pfc. Danny L. Goss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon F. Goss of Cove, were listed as killed in action. The department said Pfc. Franklin J. Willison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Willison of Mammoth Springs, had been changed from missing in action to dead of nonhostile causes.

Washington was the only president to be inaugurated in two cities. His first took place in New York City in 1789; the second at Philadelphia in 1793.
